The new OK!! brand was born through cooperation between Fields Corporation and KYORAKU SANGYO in order to create new markets and fans.

GHOST IN THE SHELL: STAND ALONE COMPLEX is a popular anime television series based on Masamune Shirou’s comic book GHOST IN THE SHELL that ran from 2002 to 2003. This series has been adapted to a wide range of mediums, such as novels, video games, and movies based on the original storyline.

This machine uses beautiful images and expressive visual and audio effects to depict the world of GHOST IN THE SHELL, in which an elite force deals with new-era crime that is becoming more advanced and high-tech in the “cyberbrain” society of the near future. During game play, players can experience new types of enjoyment, such as the new, innovative game addition system the machine is equipped with.

This futuristic machine is not only for pachinko enthusiasts, but also a wide range of anime and comic book fans.

“New-century Pachinko GHOST IN THE SHELL: STAND ALONE COMPLEX” machine is scheduled for delivery in October 2012 to pachinko halls throughout Japan.
